YELLOW Fever Blackburn is now Governor of Kentucky. Long live Kentucky.

THE trial of the Chisolm murderers is going on now. No one, of course, thinks they will be punished.

TWENTY FIVE thousand dollars is the amount of Chas. DeYoung's bond.
Barkdale's was about half as large, and his man died.

OUR telegraphic columns will show that Conkling is not so dead as he might be—not near so dead as Democrats want him, in fact not dead at all.

ON account of yellow fever in the South, cholera in the East, and the West, shot-guns in Rhode Island and Mississippi, the undertakers have to go into their back-rooms and lighten their professional gloom with a loud snarl very often nowadays.

THE strange part of Foster's census in Ohio is, that with all their lupu-lence and disregard for the truth, no false reports have been started about him by the Democrats. A man who can go through a political race without having a thousand lies coined against him, must certainly be a good man.

It seems that it is out of place to speak any more of a dead soldier or do him honor. The Peace Society of Dutchess county, N. Y., recently discussed the following resolution in regard to Gen. Custer, than whom a braver or better warrior is not to be found.
The hour of adjournment having arrived only prevented their passage:

Resolved, That the honors paid yesterday, at West Point, to the memory of George A. Custer, the treacherous and unprovoked murderer of Mokeloand the friendly Cheyenne Indians, are a national disgrace, and they proclaim to the world that the Government of the United States approves and endorses causeless slaughter.

IN speaking of the sensational report, there is one steel that is a steel, that the Democratic newspapers and stump speakers say nothing about.
The land upon which the new building for the Bureau of Printing and Engraving is being built in times past has been valued at $9,374 and taxes have been paid on it for that amount. The large sum of $25,536 was paid for it, however, or nearly three times its value, and the Committee of Appropriations approved the bargain. The Washington Republican from which we learn the facts, says that the owner was a prominent Democrat, and one who always aids the cause with his purse.

MR. E. V. SMALLEY, of the New York Tribune, is one of the clearest headed newspaper men in the United States, and his opinions on the course of events are worth a great deal, as they are the results of diligent inquiry and close application. For some time past he has been traveling over Maine and his series of letters closed on Monday. He says that Davis, the Republican candidate, will be elected by a majority ranging from three to five thousand, over both his competitors. He also says that beyond peradventure the Republicans will have a good working majority in the Legislature.

The collections made by U. S. Internal Revenue Collector, Woodcock, at Nashville, during the months of August, amounted to $46,003.85.

YELLOW FEVER.

MEMPHIS, Sept. 3.—Nine cases, four white and five colored, were reported to the Board of Health this morning. There have been four deaths since last night, Julia Castanover, James Lanus, Frank E. Graves and Calvin C. Moore.
The last named died at Bantyn Station, six miles east of this city.
Special to the Nashville American.

MEMPHIS, Sept. 1.—Sixteen new

NEW YORK.

SARATOGA, Sept. 3.—The Republican State Convention met in the town hall to-day.
There is a large attendance of spectators present, every seat being occupied and many persons unable to gain admission. A.
B. Cornell, as Chairman of the State Convention, called the Convention to order. It was moved that Senator Conkling be elected Temporary Chairman, which was adopted unanimously. On taking the chair he was greeted with applause. He thanked the convention heartily for selecting him as Temporary Chairman, and more still for the warm and cordial greeting. He congratulated the members on the auspicious promise of the party and the Republic's threatening dangers which now appear in public affairs; first, the pretensions of State rights; second, inflation, and third, a disposition to trample on the liberties of a part of the people. He referred to the resumption of specie payments, and said: "Our finances, if let alone, will be safer and better than they have been for many years. Abundant crops have been gathered, and this abundance will bring prosperity." The Senator proceeded to discuss financial measures at soe length.
His reference to a "quiet man," meaning Grant, and his veto of the act intended to check and defeat resumption by repealing the law fixing its date, was greeted with vociferous applause, as was his claim for the Republican party, that it had effected resumption, and made every paper dollar as good as gold. Following, resumption has come and renewed business prosperity, and all that is wanted is to keep off the hands of scheming man and the non-interference with business by legislation, and all will be well. Republican ascendancy means resumption and the maintenance of prosperity, and Republican ascendancy would be sure and easy, if all the votes of the country could be freely cast and fairly counted, but this, unfortunately, could not be, because in part of the country the vote was free. The pretensions of State rights once more raises its head. It declares that there shall be no free elections; that there shall be no fair count.

The majority in the two Houses of Congress at its late session took the Government by the throat and threatened to strangle it to death unless the President would sign bills which he knew to be unrighteous and unjust. The jury laws which have stood for more than eighty years were prostrated and the jury box prostituted. This was in order to give license to unlawfulness on election day and every day. The army was manacled not only on all days, but on that very day when it should be ready to act in support of National liberty.
This was all for the purpose of strangling elections in behalf of a brutal candidate.

Four Southern States, Mr. Conkling said, were certainly Republican and two others would be on the same side if the votes could be recorded, but he thought there would be no election there worth the name, and New York would decide the contest of 1880. After the appointment of the various committees the Convention adjourned until 3 o'clock.

At the afternoon session of the Republican State Convention a permanent organization was effected by the election of Wm. A. Wheeler, of Franklin, as President, and the usual number of vice-presidents.
Mr. Wheeler, on being conducted to the chair, made a speech which was general and forcible arraignments of the Democratic policy and record both during and since the war of the rebellion. A eulogy of the Record of the Republican party and a plea for the continuance of the latter in power, in order to maintain and enforce the results achieved by the sword, and to secure protection to every citizen in every right, regardless of his color, condition or locality. His speech was frequently interrupted by applause.

LATER.—Hon. A. B. Cornell was nominated for Governor on the first ballot, receiving 234 votes; necessary to choice 227.

VIRGINIA.

RICHMOND, Sept. 2.—Postmaster Forbes, of this city, arrested a white man, named E. R. Williamson, at Mehorn, on the Richmond and Danville Railroad, to-day, on a charge of committing depredations on the mails. The arrest was the result of a telegram from Special Postoffice Agent T. B. Long to Postmaster Forbes, requesting the latter to look out for mail depredators. Williamson was sent to Greensboro to-night.

FREDERICKSBURG, VA., Sept. 2.

Gen. Reese T. Bowen died in his 71st year. He represented the Ninth Virginia District in the 43rd Congress, to which he was elected over J. G. Hughes, of the United States Court of the Eastern District of Virginia, and had represented his county in the State Legislature.

MISSISSIPPI.

DEKALB, MISS., Sept. 2.—The Chisolm murder cases were called up to-day in the Circuit Court.
The defendants made a motion to quash the indictment, which was overruled, when the State and defendants announced themselves ready for trial and special venire of seventy-five jurors were drawn in each case. The first case to be tried is that of Henry G. Gully, for the murder of Miss Cornelia Chisholm, which is set for Friday. The other cases will be tried next week. Gen. Woodford is here and will remain until the close of the trial, but will take no part in the proceedings. He came as the escort for Mrs. Chisolm, who is clerk in the Treasury Department at Washington, and an important witness for the prosecution.

CALIFORNIA.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 3.—The election is progressing very quietly.
Workingmen, generally, are voting straight tickets. Republicans are scratching Murphy for District Attorney of the city and are giving Kalloch some votes for Mayor. The "Honorable Bilks" and Democrats, to a great extent, are scratching Griswold for Mayor and substituting Flint, Republican. Glenn, for Governor, is also scratched by some in favor of Perkins.

MINOR DISPATCHES.

RICHMOND, VA., Sept. 3.—A special says: "James H. Gatling, who resided near Murfreesboro', N. C., brother of the inventor of the Gatling gun, a prosperous farmer and highly respected citizen, has been found murdered near his hog-pen, pierced by three charges from a gun."

NASHVILLE, TENN., Sept. 2.— In Allen county, Kentucky, near the Tennessee State line, Thursday last, Anderson Carver, in a fit of jealousy, shot and killed his wife and then blew out his own brains.

QUEBEC, Sept. 2.—In the Legislative Assembly to-day, a motion of non-confidence in the Government affirming the necessity of a change in the ministry was lost by a vote of 24 to 21.

The Oyster Crop.

SPECIAL TO THE COURIER-JOURNAL.
NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—The oyster season opens to-day, and bivalve lovers in the West will be glad to hear that the oysters will be more plentiful this year and fatter than for some time. The summer having been warm the oysters have fed well, and the shells are now all full of solid meat. The planted oysters in the East river from Virginia seed have turned out well, and the few native beds in the East river promise a fine yield. It requires 10,000,000 oysters a day to keep New York only moderately supplied during the season. The prices promise to be a little lower.
There are plenty of Virginia oysters, and the reports from the Potomac and the vicinity are favorable. The contracts have nearly all been made for the coming season at much lower rates than heretofore.

Said Pasha.

Paris Correspondence Newark Advertiser.
Many curious stories are told of Said, the predecessor of Ismail Pasha, who has just been kicked out of the Khedive's chair at Cairo. The ruin of Egypt, consummated by Ismail, dates from the reign of Said. One could fill a volume with the accounts of the eccentricities of this monarch.
One day, not knowing how to reward a little service which one of his subjects had rendered him, he accorded to him, on his own suggestion, the monopoly of "unishing" barbers to the entire Egyptian army for one year.
On putting the place the newly-made purveyor sold his privilege for 1,500, 000 francs. On another occasion he desired a garden which one of his officials possessed near the gates of Cairo. "How much did you pay for it?" asked he. "A million, your Highness," was the prompt reply, an exaggeration by two-thirds of the real cost. "Very well, I will buy it of you." And the garden was paid for. This official had a son, a charming boy of 7 years. "Bring me your son," said the Khedive to him one day. The boy was brought. "Will you kiss me, little one?" asked the ruler graciously. "No!" said the child, "no, for I detest you." "You detest men and why?" "Because you have taken my mamma's garden, and now she does nothing but weep." Said smiled, stroked his chin,—"a favorite gesture of his,—then suddenly replied: "If I return it, your garden, then will you kiss me?" "O yes, your Highness!"
"Very well, it is yours; embrace me!" By this means the functionary got his property back again, and realized a profit of 1,000,000 francs.

The New Stock Speculations.

The new combination method of operating in stocks which Messrs.
Lawrence & Co., Bankers, N. Y., have inaugurated, is attracting unusual attention in financial circles, by reason of its remarkable success. A customer in Providence invested nine times and made over $500 in the month of August, by using from $50 to $500 capital.
By this system, orders from thousands of customers, in various sums, are pooled into one immense capital, and operated as a mighty whole, thus giving to each shareholder all the advantages of vast capital and shrewdest skill. Profits are divided every thirty days. Any amount from $10 to $75,000 can be used in Messrs. Lawrence & Co.'s combination with equal proportionate success.
$15 will make $75 profit in the month.
$200 will return $1,600, or 8 per cent. on the stock, and so on, as the market varies. The new circular gives "two unerring rules for success," and shows how any one can operate profitably.
Mail-order. Stocks and bonds wanted.
Government bonds supplied. Apply

A WASHINGTON special to the Baltimore Sun of Tuesday says:

"Secretary Sherman was in attendance at his desk in the Treasury Department to-day. He expresses himself as entirely confident that Foster will be elected in Ohio. He says that the Republicans are making a superb canvass—a canvass that is sure to bring out a full vote, and when the Republicans poll their full vote the State is sure to be theirs. The Secretary gives as his reason for returning to Washington so soon that he had business at the Department which required his immediate presence. He had remained in Ohio as long as he had intended when he started there."

A MOVEMENT is being agitated in Dakota to have the Territory divided in three parts.

THE OLD MAN DRUNK AGAIN.

Mrs. Kate Chase Sprague's Escape from Her Prison at Canonchet.

NARRAGANSETT PIER, Aug. 31.— Mrs. Sprague's escape from Can-onchet last evening, with her three girls, made a sensation. Since her return to Canonchet, she has been ill treated by Gov. Sprague. His actions, her friends represent, culminated on Friday in an outbreak.
Going home in an intoxicated condition, he burst into the room in which she was, and shouted to Mrs.
Sprague: "I'll show you who is master here." He then dragged her around the room and attempted to throw her from the window, but those there prevented him. Mrs.
Sprague then quietly began to escape from the place, and at half-past five on Saturday evening she slipped away with the three girls, and was soon several miles away.
The Governor and his nephew, Arthur Watson, who had been closely watching her, knew nothing of her going until she well away.
Watson, on discovering the flight, immediately started with the colored cook and searched the hotels at the pier, and finding her not, hurried back. The Governor then took the team and started at a breakneck pace for Kingston Junction, eight miles away, thinking that she might have taken the train, and hoping to intercept her. He had a hot race of it, arriving there just before the train, covered with mud and excited, but he did not find Mrs.
Sprague; so he took his way back to Canonchet. Willie Sprague, their son, who has sided all along with his father, was started in the direction of Tower Hill, but returned without success.

THE ex-Khedive is said to have robbed the treasury and harems of money and jewels amounting to $200, 000,000, one item alone being $1,500,000 in cash. Let him sail for America and be lionized. The Democrats are hard up for a candidate now and a man with such a "bar!" is not to be despised. And then he's not a bachel-lor.

We acknowledge the courtesy of an invitation to the annual reception to be given by the Young Men's Christian Association of the University, to the new students, in the Association rooms, this evening, from 8 to 10 o'clock. The Reception Committee is J. H. Cowan, Chairman, Jas. Cummings, S. L. George, Wm. P. Ford, Jas. H. Wilkes, President, D. B.
Johnson, Secretary, Isaac B. Hines, Dembere ex-officio.
